“To everything there is a season, and a time to every
PURPOSE under the heaven:
a time to be born and a time to die;
a time to plant and a time to pluck up that which has been planted;
a time to love and a time to hate;
a time of war and a time of peace.”
Ecclesiastes 3

With all the many challenges our Connie Maxwell family has faced in the last couple of years, especially in recent months, this scripture offers a strong assurance and steadfast confidence that God has a PURPOSE for everything.

This edition of the Connie Maxwell magazine brings to life the strong, enduring PURPOSE of our healing ministry for children and families. As you mingle through these pages, PURPOSE comes alive through a pictorial review of our 20th Anniversary Connie Maxwell Christmas, where we celebrated with a Colton Dixon concert and welcomed over 18,000 friends and churches across South Carolina. It was the largest crowd in our 20 year Christmas tradition!!

Also, you will notice our Honor Roll of Givers continues to grow and expand. Thousands of donors are strengthening our PURPOSE by making sacrificial gifts. This army of donors for the dreams of children brought to bear the largest #GivingTuesday campaign to date by raising over $450,000 in one day!! This momentum unveils a growing excitement as we prepare for a future campaign that promises to fund many of our “Decade of Dreams” Initiatives. Stay tuned for exciting times ahead....

More than anything, Connie Maxwell is about its people. People define PURPOSE. God works through the hearts, lives, and spirits of servants, like B.M. Cave, who followed his father’s example and served as a Board of Trustee member for 20 years. His story is special but not uncommon. So many selfless saints have given their lives to minister to children in Jesus’ name.

Thanks for all you do to strengthen our PURPOSE!!

November 30 welcomes Colton Dixon to kick-off Christmas anniversary celebration and sets record day of giving

Tuesday, November 30, was an exciting evening for Connie Maxwell Children's Ministries. At 6:00 pm, the doors of Connie Maxwell Baptist Church opened to welcome hundreds of visitors to hear Christian artist Colton Dixon. The sold-out show had approximately 350 people packing the pews, with some driving as far as Fort Mill, SC, to attend. The concert was also a treat for the middle and high school-aged children at Connie Maxwell.

Colton Dixon quickly became a household name in 2012 when he was voted a fan favorite and made it to the top seven on Season 11 of Fox's hit show AMERICAN IDOL.

“This has got to be one of the prettiest places I have ever played. It's just amazing.”

- Colton Dixon
Christian Artist

His career has been on the fast track ever since, boasting over 100 million streams across all platforms.

When Colton first arrived inside the church, he was a little taken back at the beauty of the stained glass windows and the overall atmosphere. “This has got to be one of the prettiest places I have ever played,” he said. “It's just amazing.”

Colton entertained the audience with a solo performance on the keyboard and played a variety of songs, including his latest single, “Miracles.”

The concert was planned as a kick-off to the 20th anniversary celebration of Connie Maxwell Christmas, December 2-4.

“We wanted to come up with something extra special this year and thought this would be a great way to welcome people to our campus and give them a sneak peek of our beautiful Christmas lights before our official anniversary celebration weekend,” said Chief of Staff/Dreams Administrator Debbie McDowell.

Before Colton performed, Connie Maxwell President Emeritus Dr. Ben Davis began the evening by providing a brief history of Connie Maxwell Christmas and how it had grown over the years.

That was followed by a display of 20th anniversary cupcakes, complete with sparkler candles, that was wheeled down the aisle after the audience sang ‘happy birthday’ to commemorate the special anniversary. Each guest received a cupcake after the concert.

When the concert was finished, one thing was certain; no one was ready for it to end. No longer feeling shy, the Connie Maxwell children in attendance were standing and clapping towards the end of the show. Colton had gained some new lifelong fans on his visit to Greenwood.

As the ministry moves into year two of the strategic plan, A Decade of Dreams, the hope is to bring more exciting concerts and events to campus. Stay tuned!

What else was special about Tuesday, November 30? It also happened to be #GivingTuesday! This was the third year that Connie Maxwell has participated in this national day of giving, and it was by far the most successful for the ministry.

With an initial goal of $250,000, the evening ended with 505 donors, giving a total of $445,421.51! This included $128,000 of “match” money, checks, and cash, as well as the online gifts received on that day through our website and fundraiser pages.

Vice President for Strategic Initiatives Jay Boyd was incredibly excited about the amount of staff participation during this day of giving.

In an email sent to staff, Boyd shared, “Connie Maxwell staff had a total of 21 fundraising teams and raised more than $80,000! I am continually amazed by the level of unity, camaraderie, and energy exhibited by Connie Maxwell's staff. Yesterday is just a small example of what God can do over the next decade if we work together and trust HIM to provide for the children and families we serve. Thank you,

y of Connie Maxwell Christmas.

Lord, and well done, Connie Maxwell!”

To make this day even more exciting for staff, Boyd established a competition with three categories: Grand Champions (for the most revenue raised), “Most Donors” Award, and the Spirit of #GivingTuesday Award.

The overall winning team who raised the most money was Maxwell Farms with Brad Martin, Lauren Jay, and Jamie Owens. They raised almost $21,000, most of that coming from a single donor who gave a large and incredibly generous gift.

The team that had the most donors participate in their fundraiser was Team Brookland with Brittany Arant, Sandi, and Cody Cann. They had 28 different donors give to their fundraiser and received a total of $13,268.

Finally, the Spirit of #GivingTuesday award went to Connie Maxwell alumni and staff member Henry Woodard. Woodard did an excellent job of promoting our mission for #GivingTuesday and made a touching FaceBook post about how much his mentor Bobby Wines meant to him. He asked everyone reading his post to make a gift to honor people like him.

In 2022, #GivingTuesday will fall on November 29. Mark your calendars and become a part of this exciting day of giving!

A CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

Connie Maxwell celebrated 20 years of Connie Maxwell Christmas

The Connie Maxwell Christmas celebration has become a popular tradition in Greenwood, SC, and beyond for over twenty years. With beautiful lights adorning our campus, Connie Maxwell is the perfect place for families and friends to gather and celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. This past December, our ministry celebrated our twentieth Connie Maxwell Christmas Celebration. Thousands gathered to experience the story of Jesus's birth told through a live nativity. Visitors traveled by horse-drawn wagons to view our campus that brimmed with beautiful Christmas lights. The most joyful volunteers and staff served hot chocolate. In addition, visitors enjoyed a petting zoo full of animals that our children have the opportunity to love daily.

Connie Maxwell's Chief of Staff and Dreams Administrator Debbie McDowell states, "The 2021 Connie Maxwell Christmas event was extra special because of the 20th anniversary celebration. Record crowds of more than

"Record crowds of more than 18,000 people enjoyed our campus during the three-day event."

18,000 people enjoyed our campus during the three-day event. Alumni returned to take family pictures for Christmas. Families continued their annual family tradition. New people in town came for their first time. People also traveled from hours away to come. Much joy was shared as we celebrated the birth of Jesus and this precious ministry to children and families. Plans are already being made for our 2022 event, which will be Dec. 1-3."

Connie Maxwell Christmas is a celebration that we hope to continue for another successful twenty years and, with hope, even longer.

On November 30th, Colton Dixon performed his award-winning music at Connie Maxwell Baptist Church to kick-off the 20th Anniversary Christmas Celebration. An exciting evening as hundreds visited our campus to worship and support our ministry.

Live concerts were held by our children and special guests to celebrate the birth of Jesus.

Visitors enjoyed our horse-drawn wagons through campus to view our beautiful holiday lights and decor.

Delicious hot chocolate was served by our amazing staff and volunteers.

Each year our children and staff work together to reenact the story of Jesus's birth through a live nativity.

Saturday morning, several children unleashed their creativity by making a snowman, sledding, and having snowball battles. # Rhetta Jones named fourth recipient of the 'Will you Come to Me in My Dreams Award'

Rhetta Jones

Rhetta Jones has been named the recipient of the fourth annual 'Will you Come to Me in My Dreams Award.' She follows previous honorees, Randy McManus, Vernelle Swinton, and Linda Taylor. Jones was recognized during the November Board of Trustees and staff meetings at Connie Maxwell.

Danny and Debra Nicholson established this endowment to honor both their parents and pay tribute to the dedicated staff of Connie Maxwell.

"When Debra and I started this endowment, we wanted to reward somebody that goes beyond the call," Nicholson said. "There are a lot of people who do that here, but also people who do that for a long, long time. Rhetta has given her life to this place and our children."

Rhetta Jones is the campus administrator of the Marie Younts Girls' Home in Mauldin and has served at Connie Maxwell for 42 years.

In a letter submitted for her nomination, Jones is described as a God-loving woman with a servant's heart. "She will cook, clean, and repair a broken chair. She is a teacher, she is a counselor, she is a cheerleader, she is a driver...whatever is needed, the girls can always depend on her."

The letter describes the close relationships she has with many of her former students. For example, two of her first girls, sisters, still call her on her birthday, Mother's Day, and Christmas.

"God gave me His greatest gift, His son Jesus Christ, for my sins," Jones said during the November staff meeting. "His second gift was the gift to be a part of this ministry for 42 years."

Jones recalled how working with children can be challenging at times. "I often go down the hall and say, 'Lord, remind me again why you have me in this ministry?' and He does."

During those discouraging moments, she always finds encouragement. Often, those are the times she gets just the right phone call, card in the mail, or other affirmation for her work.

"I know why He has me in this ministry. He needs all of us to serve His children in their broken times."

Connie Maxwell receives national reaccreditation and endorsement from COA

Connie Maxwell Children's Ministries has achieved national Reaccreditation through the New York-based Council on Accreditation (COA). Connie Maxwell was first accredited by COA five years ago and spent the past 18 months working to achieve Reaccreditation. Organizations pursue accreditation to demonstrate the implementation of best-practice standards in the field of human services. COA evaluated all aspects of Connie Maxwell's programs, services, management, and administration.

An email received December 14 from COA President and CEO Jody Levison-Johnson stated, "Reaccreditation is a tremendous achievement that demonstrates that your organization is recognized as a provider that continues to successfully implement high-performance standards and, as such, is delivering the highest quality services to all of its stakeholders."

This reaccreditation comes on the launch of a new strategic plan, A Decade of Dreams, with a goal to become a national leader in understanding trauma and mental health on a deeper level through research, education, and implementation of best practices.

"This is great affirmation that we are on the right track in our efforts to pursue the highest level of excellence in all of our programs," said Connie Maxwell President William D. Nicholson II.

COA accreditation is an objective, independent, and reliable validation of an agency's performance. The COA accreditation process involves a detailed review and analysis of an organization's administration, management, and service delivery functions against international best practice standards. The standards driving accreditation ensure that services are well-coordinated, culturally competent, evidence-based, outcomes-oriented, and provided by a skilled and supported workforce. COA accreditation demonstrates accountability in the management of resources, sets standardized best practice thresholds for service and administration, and increases organizational capacity and accountability by creating a framework for ongoing quality improvement.

To achieve COA accreditation, Connie Maxwell first provided written evidence of compliance with the COA standards. Thereafter, a group of specially trained volunteer Peer Reviewers confirmed adherence to these standards during a series of on-site interviews with trustees, staff, and clients.

Based on their findings, COA's volunteer-based Accreditation Commission voted that Connie Maxwell had successfully met the criteria for accreditation.

Founded in 1977, COA is an independent, not-for-profit accreditor of the full continuum of community-based behavioral health care and social service organizations in the United States and Canada. Over 2,000 organizations — voluntary, public, and proprietary; local and statewide; large and small — have either successfully achieved COA accreditation or are currently engaged in the process. Presently, COA has 47 service standards that are applicable to over 125 different types of programs. To learn more about COA, please visit www.coanet.org.

Connie Maxwell Children's Ministries offers residential care, crisis care, foster care, and family care services throughout South Carolina. Connie Maxwell has been providing services to children and families since 1892.

“ This is great affirmation that we are on the right track in our efforts to pursue the highest level of excellence in all our programs. ”

Clemson University Landscape Architecture class chooses Connie Maxwell for project

The Clemson School of Architecture is looking to make its mark on A Decade of Dreams. On Monday, January 31, Director of Landscape Architecture and Undergraduate Programs, Matthew Powers, along with more than 20 students from the spring studio design class, visited the Greenwood campus to discuss future plans and ideas.

Their class has chosen Connie Maxwell as their spring project. Powers explained that they would be working in collaboration with two other professors, bringing a lot more resources and capabilities to the table.

“This will be an integrated project,” Powers said. “We can do some actual real plans, which will provide more detail than just conceptual work.”

Each student received a copy of A Decade of Dreams, Connie Maxwell’s ten-year strategic plan launched in 2020.

“You are at the beginning of this new vision,” Powers said. “We want to help you breathe life into your vision, especially in areas that are under-used or way down in the future that you haven’t thought about.”

Specifically, the class will be focusing on site plans, master plans, and overall vision. In addition, wayfinding signage and connecting all the campus elements together will also be a focus.

Powers explained how the mission of Connie Maxwell was what appealed to the kids the most when deciding on a project.

“Students today want to make a difference,” he said. “So this is a chance for that. That’s a different element to this project for us.”

The class will return to campus in early March to share their initial concepts and receive feedback from the Connie Maxwell leadership team. Then, they will return to present their plans and recommendations at the end of the semester.

Connie Maxwell Children’s Ministries has a growing relationship with Clemson University. On Friday, February 7, 2020, Allen Wood, an alumnus of the ministry, was awarded the Clemson Medallion—the highest public honor Clemson University bestows.

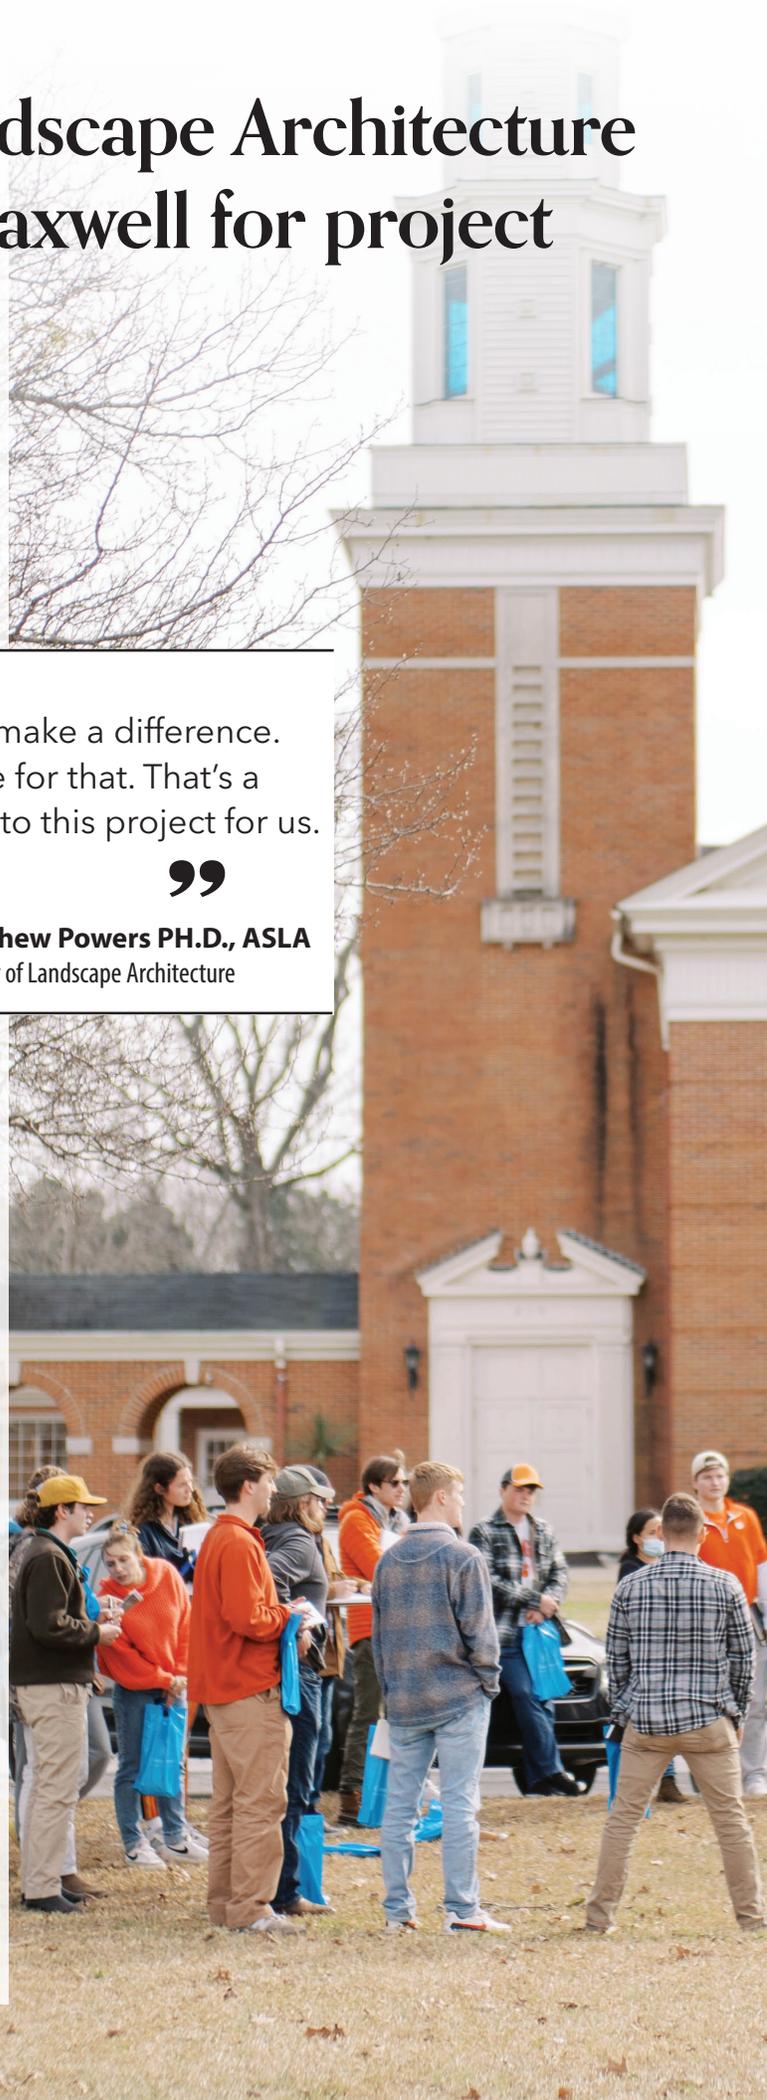

Woods is a retired architect and credits his time at Connie Maxwell for helping him to develop a strong work ethic and sense of responsibility.

Connie Maxwell has also received a grant from Dabo’s All In Team Foundation for the past three years. This money has been used to help with needed cottage renovations on campus.

For more information about A Decade of Dreams, visit www.ConnieMaxwell.com.

Loving Connie Maxwell through a lifetime of service

By Julia Bell

B.M. Cave and wife Beverly, pictured with Danny.

If Connie Maxwell Children's Ministries had an official cheerleader, it would be B.M. Cave. His passion for the mission, legacy and people of Connie Maxwell becomes evident within minutes of talking with him. Cave just completed his fourth term on the Board of Trustees – his third term as chairman – and already knows what he will do during this next “year off.”

“We have received a donation to create a Connie Maxwell location in the Charleston area, where we have not been a part of in the past, and I have been asked to lead the project. Because of the exciting days ahead, I would love to continue my service on the board in the future,” Cave reports.

Serving Connie Maxwell comes naturally to Cave, whose father also served as a trustee in the 1960's. He recalls going to meetings with his father and experiencing Connie Maxwell at a young age. That love for the ministry to children and families prompted Cave to accept his first term on the board in 1999, and he hasn't stopped since.

“It blesses my heart to see God at work through us taking care of children that do not have parents or grandparents that can take care of them,” he says, adding Connie Maxwell is willing to care for children “in the short term and long term, helping them with college and higher education if they are with us through high school.”

Cave shares two pivotal experiences he's had while serving as chairman during his more than 20 years with the board. The first was during the 2008 financial crisis which led to a multimillion-dollar loss to Connie Maxwell's endowment. “We cannot operate without the endowment because Connie Maxwell receives no funding when a child enters our care,” Cave explains. “This was the only situation in my 20 years of service on the board that we had to change the financial policy. Our investment management team has done a great job moving us back from the losses to recovery and today we have a large endowment to keep taking care of children.”

Cave also led the presidential search committee that called Dr. Danny Nicholson. He affirms the visionary work Nicholson has set into motion saying it reflects Nicholson's personal story of family and belonging, and that Cave feels “very honored that we found Dr. Danny Nicholson and his wife Debra to lead Connie Maxwell into the future.”

Cave was born and raised in Walterboro. His grandfather fought in the Civil War and Cave fondly remembers spending time with his grandmother who was one of the last surviving Civil War widows at the time of her death some 30 years ago. After high school Cave graduated from Columbia Commercial College and completed additional education at the Baptist College of Charleston. He retired in 2008 from a career with the South Carolina Budget and Control Board.

Cave is also active in his local community, including support for Fellowship of Christian Athletes events, and since 1994 has volunteered with an evangelistic group doing mission work in Romania. He is a member of Red Bank Baptist in Lexington, where he has served on mission and policy committees and is currently a church trustee.

Cave has been married to the former Beverly Jarrell since 1967 and the couple has two adult children and three grandchildren. Beverly Cave is also active at Connie Maxwell, including as a member of DreamMakers. During the search committee interview process the Caves were excited to discover that Debra Nicholson is also from the same small community in Hampton County where Beverly Cave also grew up, a connection none were aware of before.

As Connie Maxwell's longest-serving living trustee, Cave has seen four presidents and one interim president during his time there. He points to James Wright's interim service as instrumental in preparing Connie Maxwell for Nicholson's arrival and says “Danny has been a blessing to Connie

- B.M. Cave
Connie Maxwell Trustee

Maxwell since he's been here. He wrote our current strategic plan and captured input from across the state and assistance from other committees before bringing it before the trustees, who have fully embraced and support it completely."

Cave believes that Connie Maxwell Children Ministries is one of the most important ministries among the affiliated with the South Carolina Baptist Convention. He points out that Connie Maxwell is the "only one that when we get a child we get no funding. When a student goes to college, they pay a tuition. When Connie Maxwell receives a child, we receive no funding but we care for them." For these reasons, Cave would like to see more funds allotted to the ministry of Connie Maxwell in the future.

"When children come to us and then accept Jesus Christ as their Savior and understand what that means, they can know and understand that our Savior is always taking care of them," he says.

Trustees honored at meeting

Five Connie Maxwell Board of Trustee members officially completed their board commitments on Dec. 31, 2021. They were presented with a gift for their service by President William D. Nicholson II during the November trustee meeting. Derrick Davenport was the first trustee recognized by Nicholson. "I want to recognize him for his great encouraging spirit, his sacrificial giving, and encouraging others to give by his example. Let's remember all those moments that God has given us to serve in joy together," he said.

"My prayer is that revival never stops at Connie Maxwell and that we continue to see the spirit move here," Davenport said.

Davenport described how he has gotten to know the history of the ministry through his service as a trustee. As he read several history books and learned more about former leaders like A.T. Jamison, one thing stood out to him—leaders of the ministry have loved children in Jesus' name and not their own sake.

"That's the shoulders we stand on," he said. "Those are the people that have gone before us. Anything that I can do to help, I am there. I promise you that God will provide every moment of every day and everything we attempt to do if we give Him the glory."

Irene Murphy was recognized next, and Nicholson praised her continuous service and love. Murphy recalled how she first connected with Connie Maxwell almost 70 years ago as a Junior GA.

"We had Christmas in the two-story house on campus and brought presents for each child," she said. "From there, it just grew because I only lived 1.5 miles away."

She recalled many of the special times and friends she had

from Connie Maxwell, both in school and even college. "It has been a blessing."

Rev. Paul Noe was recognized next and served as board chairman Nicholson's first year at Connie Maxwell. Nicholson recalled how much Noe was a strong stabilizer and an ear of encouragement. "You are such an example of Jesus, and we appreciate you and your service," Nicholson said.

Nicholson next recognized Edsel Williams for his service, remarking on his humble spirit. "Thank you for your support and your prayers for an old country boy," Williams said.

Finally, Nicholson recognized Board Chairman B.M. Cave for more than 20 years of service to children and families as a trustee at Connie Maxwell. "You can do something great for a little while, and people will recognize it," Nicholson said. "But if you do something great for a long time, that qualifies for the hall of fame. This is my way of inducting B.M. into the hall of fame."

Cave recalled how he used to play outside on campus as a young boy while his father attended board meetings. His family has had a long connection with the ministry. "We love it so much, and it is an honor to serve for so long," said Cave. "I have made many good friends, and it's just been a wonderful time. I want to thank my wife Beverly for supporting me through all of this too."
