The 60-Year Dedication of Randy and Sandy McManus

Dear Connie Maxwell Dreamers,

As Connie Maxwell moves boldly into the fourth year of our ten-year plan, "A Decade of Dreams," we pause to reflect on all the many blessings God has bestowed upon our ministry.

Indeed, we have patiently planned and slowly, prayerfully put in place a firm foundation on which to build, and at this very moment, we are now "Crossing the Threshold."

This doorway to the future leads us into deeper waters and new territory filled with challenges, dreams, and great expectations. Beyond a shadow of a doubt, God once again has fulfilled His promise to "do something new" in our midst and give greater hope and healing to our children and families.

While writing this letter, I glanced over my shoulder to see the awe-inspiring wonder of how He intimately orchestrated, with perfect timing, the steps of our journey so much that our only response is to fall on our knees and give thanks. With great confidence I can say that "History Rhymes!!"

In this issue of The Connie Maxwell, the feature story unveils the 2.6-million-dollar gift to name our new state of the art healing center facility - The McCall Center at Connie Maxwell.

This announcement coincides with our continued work on developing the "inner workings" of this comprehensive, sustainable, holistic trauma program developed by national experts.

In addition to this special gift, "For the Dreams of Children" Campaign features a parade of sacrificial gifts to Maxwell Farms, our new Charleston campus, and the continued strengthening of our many services and programs. These highlights are featured in this issue, and we ask you to join us in praying for and supporting our efforts to accomplish our vision, "to become a national leader in healing and ministry for vulnerable children and families."

As we join hands and hearts to "Cross the Threshold", we want to thank each of you for all you do to support the needs of the "least of these." Whether praying, volunteering, or making a sacrificial gift, your continued support makes it possible for children and families to be loved, cared for, and ultimately healed in Jesus' name.

God bless you!

For the Dreams of Children,

A 2.6 MILLION DOLLAR GIFT TO NAME THE MCCALL CENTER

Connie Maxwell Children's Ministries is proud to announce a $2.6 million gift and the naming of a 25,000 square foot facility designed to provide services to children and families. The McCall Center is named for the late P.L. "Roy" McCall, whose generosity helped make the center a reality.

Connie Maxwell leadership, donors, alumni, and friends of the McCall family joined in a celebration ceremony for the gift on February 29. Danny Nicholson, president of Connie Maxwell Children's Ministries, announced the gift as the "mantlepiece" of the organization's "Decade of Dreams" strategic plan, which is designed to fulfill its vision to be "a national leader for ministry and healing for vulnerable children and families."

"This significant gift names, gives meaning and brings honor and legacy to the healing of children and families for generations to come," Nicholson said. "The McCall Center will define our future dreams through restoration, resilience and flourishing."

Established as a ministry of the South Carolina Baptist Convention in 1892, Connie Maxwell has positively impacted over 18,000 children and families throughout its long history. The organization provides residential care, crisis care, foster care and family care to children and families facing difficult circumstances. They aim to make the dreams of children possible again.

The McCall Center will include an auditorium for large-scale events, meeting rooms and a research library. The center will also include a board room, workstations and offices to facilitate better collaboration among staff and accommodations for children receiving therapy and interventions.

"This significant gift names, gives meaning and brings honor and legacy to the healing of children and families for generations to come," Nicholson said. "The McCall Center will define our future dreams through restoration, resilience and flourishing."

- President Danny Nicholson

P.L. "Roy" McCall

According to Nicholson, the center will allow Connie Maxwell to integrate innovative, trauma-informed care into its existing programs and create a space for experts in the fields of trauma and child-care to share their knowledge with staff and the community.

"The McCall family was an ever present, strong and enduring influence, and has a lasting legacy in the South Carolina Baptist history," Nicholson said. "The fingerprints of the McCall family will forever rest upon the hearts and lives of children and families at the McCall Center."

Nicholson spoke of visiting McCall several times upon his arrival to Connie Maxwell in 2017. He said McCall was excited about the organization's vision for a "deeper ministry" for children and families, and singled out numerous occasions in which McCall publicly voiced his support for its mission.

McCall, who passed away in 2022, was an active participant in numerous local, county and state agricultural organizations and a proud supporter of both Clemson University and Coker College through various endowments, gifts and scholarship funds. He was a lifelong member of West Hartsville Baptist Church, serving as a deacon, intermediate department superintendent and choir member.

Mr. Courtney and Carolyn Stokes, close friends of McCall who took care of him at the end of his life, were also in attendance at the celebration ceremony. Carolyn spoke of McCall's long family legacy of philanthropy and support for the Baptist Foundation and numerous ministries and organizations, including Connie Maxwell.

“He always told us Connie Maxwell is a place that he supports, just like his daddy did.”

The Connie Maxwell Decade of Dreams Strategic Plan includes the creation of the McCall Center, the expansion and reimagining of Maxwell Farms, an existing location that offers respite for children and families via numerous outdoor activities.

The plan also includes the creation of a Connie Maxwell campus in the Charleston area, which is the only South Carolina region in which the organization is not represented despite a rapidly increasing population of individuals in need. To learn more about how you can support these initiatives, contact Danny Nicholson at president@conniemaxwell.com.

Over 200 guests attended the historic announcement on Feb. 29, 2024

Below is an excerpt from President Danny Nicholson's speech on February 29 of how God is in the details of the transformational gift from Mr. P.L. "Roy" McCall.

Psalms 139

*For you created my inmost being;
You knit me together in my mothers' womb.
I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you
When I was made in the secret place,
When I was woven together in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.*

History Rhymes...

From being born alone on February 26, 1962, picked up by a maintenance worker and school teacher, and carried to 401 West Richardson Circle in Hartsville, South Carolina...

To being distinctly called by God by and through a six year old African American boy at a Seafood Restaurant in Garden City, S.C., Summer of 2016, and his words... His words will forever remain in our hearts, he said,

"Will You Come to me in My Dreams?"

Like David's proclamation in Psalms 139, I also feel that "all my days were set in place for me and written in God's book before one of them came to be." I feel that deeply in my heart and spirit!!

You see, on occasion, folks ask me "Exactly, what do you do as President at Connie Maxwell?" I answer quickly without hesitation, "I testify!" They reply, "No, I mean what do you do in your job, everyday activities, you know your role as the leader?" "I testify!" I testify about the intimacy and timing of God. I testify about the One that knows my story better than me.

Who can know your story better than you? Who can fling the stars into the sky yet still know the most minute details of my past, present, and future? And if that is true...and I believe it is. What else is left to do in life....but testify?

So after our "Damascus Road" experience at the beach when Debra and I surrendered to God's call. The word Dream had a very different meaning to us.

In September 2017, we arrived at Connie Maxwell and unpacked our bags at 109 Jamison Street North and joyfully began to work on a plan for the future.

While writing "A Decade of Dreams" strategic plan or should I say strategic testimony because man makes plans and God creates testimonies. I ran across a quote by Mark Twain that I used to express the dance between the past history and the future dreams. It says,

"History doesn't repeat itself; but it often rhymes."

History Rhymes.

After reading every bit of history that I could find and learning about A.T. Jamison who served as President for 46 years. I was impressed with his intellectual curiosity and enduring commitment to excellence that blazed a path of innovation way ahead of his time. In fact, his last words to colleagues four days before he died were,

"Boys, don't get in a rut, if I children need something we don't have, go learn where to find it."

It was Jamison who used the term "mental hygiene" in the 1930s and received Connie Maxwell's first grant from the Duke Endowment for $7000 to fund a Family Social Worker in 1924. It became obvious to me that this desire to have a deeper understanding of trauma and brokenness was in our DNA from the very beginning.

Yes....History Rhymes.

It is a distinct privilege and with great joy that Connie Maxwell announces today a 2.6 million dollar gift "For the Dreams of Children" Campaign to name the McCall Center as the mantlepiece of "A Decade of Dreams ."

This significant gift names, gives meaning, and brings honor and legacy to the healing of children and families for generations to come.

The McCall Center will define our future dreams through Restoration, Resilience, and Flourishing. Approximately, a 25,000 square foot state of the art facility will be built to elevate Connie Maxwell's profile, enhance our mission, and ultimately fulfill our vision to be "a national leader for ministry and healing for vulnerable children and families."

But this is more than a major gift announcement.

It is a testimony of how God builds, fulfills, and then reveals His glory and future dreams to His people.

History Rhymes.

One night, after hearing of the news of the McCall gift, I was in the vault in Bailey Administration building, quiet and alone, I went to explore some of the scrapbooks and pictures in the archive when I looked up and saw a number of red leather bound books on a shelf above the door. I had never seen them before so I reached up to randomly pull one of them down. I parted the book pages and to my delight and surprise

I opened it to a picture of P. L. McCall when he was Vice Chairman of the Connie Maxwell Board of Trustees in 1971. I was stunned and began to ask God if there is something more about this gift? Something more that He would like me to know?

My mother died around the same time that the gift transpired and as I went through all of her belongings I found a Building dedication program for West Hartsville Baptist Church in 1954. I fumbled through its pages and noticed that P.L. McCall was the chair of the Building Committee and the Fundraising Committee for the creation of West Hartsville Baptist Church in 1954. What has that got to do with today?

Well, my mom and dad, who rescued and adopted me, were married in West Hartsville Baptist Church in 1957. The pastor who conducted their wedding ceremony was Rev. David Wells. He signed my adoption papers in 1962.

History rhymed again when Roy and Reaves McCall played key role in building the new West Hartsville Baptist Church right next to the old one. We attended church there in the 1990s and my two sons, Taylor and Bryson, were both baptized in that church.

The McCall family was an ever present, strong and enduring influence, and has a lasting legacy in South Carolina Baptist history.

As the story continues and history rhymes into the creation of the McCall Center, thousands of children and families will experience restoration, strengthen their resilience, and ultimately flourish in their lives. Indeed, many children, through the ages, will come to know Christ through the healing power of His grace, and that grace will be administered through God's Word, faithful prayer, cutting edge interventions, research, and education.

In 2020, our leadership planted a tree and placed a marker in the ground to claim God's calling through "A Decade of Dreams." It has been four years and here we stand on this sacred ground. Ground that soon will be broken to proclaim our commitment to the healing of children and families at Connie Maxwell, in South Carolina, and around the nation.

The fingerprints of the McCall family will forever rest upon the hearts and lives of children and families at this sacred place...

Finding Her Voice

Amidst the grandeur of the Opera House, Theoriia stepped onto the stage, her heart pounding with a mix of nerves and excitement. Little did she know that this performance in the Back to Broadway Review would mark the beginning of a transformative journey.

As she recalled her first steps into the world of theater, Theoriia shared, "I honestly didn't know what I was getting myself into. Miss Lauren signed me up for it, and I didn't know what this musical was about. I had no idea." Despite her uncertainty, she dove headfirst into rehearsals, embracing the unknown with courage.

When the curtains rose, and the spotlight found her, Theoriia's nerves melted away, replaced by the thrill of performing. "It was almost like muscle memory," she recalled, "I just felt like, 'Oh my goodness, this is real.'" Her voice filled the theater, carrying with it a raw emotion that captivated the audience.

Reflecting on the experience, Theoriia shared, "I just felt like I was part of something really big. I was opening up and sharing a piece of myself with everyone." In those moments on stage, she found a sense of purpose and belonging that she hadn't known before.

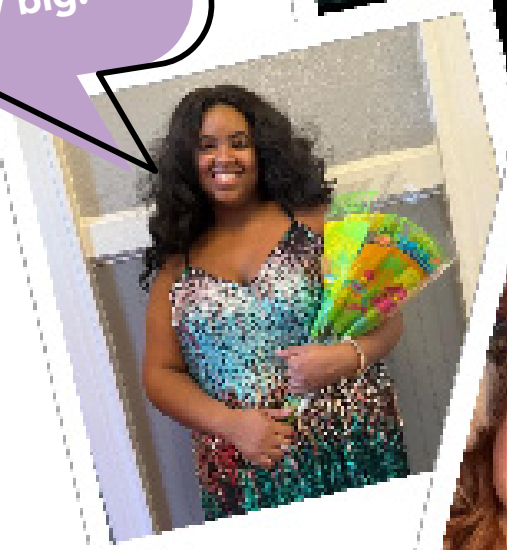

Among the whirlwind of performances, certain moments stood out to Theoriia. "I just looked into the crowd and saw the people I love, smiling ear to ear," she reminisced. "It made a difference for me." These moments of connection with her loved ones fueled her performance.

But singing wasn't just about performing for Theoriia; it was a way to navigate life's challenges. "I love music because it's a way for me to cope with things," she explained. "When I'm feeling down, I listen to music, and it helps me through." Her voice became a beacon of hope, guiding her through both joyful and challenging times.

Theoriia's dreams extend beyond the stage to a career in healthcare. Inspired by her experiences, she aspires to make a difference in people's lives. "I want to be an RN or a PA," she shared. "I want to work with babies."

As Theoriia continues her journey, one thing is certain – her voice will continue to resonate, both on stage and in the hearts of those she touches. Through her music and her aspirations, she embodies the power of passion, perseverance, and the pursuit of dreams.

I just felt like I was part of something really big.

Shining Bright:

HOLLAND'S GEM OF A DEBUT AT MISS EMERALD

Holland, one of our high school students, recently had an exciting experience participating in the Miss Emerald High School pageant for the first time. After several weeks of practice and preparation, Holland's hard work paid off. She earned the honor of first runner-up to Miss Junior—a fantastic achievement!

For Holland, this event was so meaningful for her. "The confidence I felt standing there on stage, and looking into the crowd and seeing everyone that came to support me is a very special memory that I will never forget."

Holland received valuable support and guidance from Kirby Elizabeth Self, a Greenwood native who was crowned Miss Emerald in 2017 and currently holds the title of Miss South Carolina USA.

Self generously shared her expertise and experience with Holland, helping her feel confident and poised on stage.

Holland and Kirby Self, Miss South Carolina USA

Expressing her enthusiasm for assisting Holland, Self remarked, "Empowering others through encouragement is what being Miss South Carolina USA is all about and having the opportunity to work with Holland for the Miss Emerald pageant was a moment that will always hold a special place in my heart. Watching her walk across the stage with grace and confidence will be one of the highlights of my year."

Mentorship, as evidenced in Holland's journey, serves as a catalyst for our students' empowerment, enabling them not only to realize their full potential but also to pursue their aspirations with confidence.

Additionally, Holland and several of the girls' cottages had the special opportunity to meet Self and take photos together and spend time together, creating memorable moments for our students.

We want to congratulate Holland on her success and express our gratitude to Self for her mentorship and encouragement.

Self spent time with a few of our students from the girls' cottages.

Equipping Hearts

CONNIE MAXWELL TRAINS CHURCHES AND EXPANDS SERVICES

Jules Thompson leading a trauma-informed session at the SC Baptist Convention

As Connie Maxwell continues forward in the “Decade of Dreams” strategic plan, one of the most important components of our future will be a commitment to better understanding trauma and how to bring restoration, resiliency, and flourishing to kids from hard places in Jesus’ name.

Connie Maxwell is excited to now begin offering FREE workshops, trainings, and resources focused on “Christ-centered, trauma-informed” care to churches and community groups! These workshops will equip caregivers with a comprehensive understanding of trauma and its impact on children and families.

We will be offering two different types of training: Intro to Christ-Centered Trauma Informed Care, and TBRI® Caregiver Training. Both of these training courses differ in length of time ranging from 90 minutes to a full-day based on the needs and desire of the audience.

These “Christ-Centered, Trauma Informed trainings” are a mixture of evidence-based research principles and scripture. These courses discuss who children from hard places are, the risk factors involved, and some of the misbehaviors that are seen because of what has happened in their lives. Training attendees receive tips and tools for how to manage these behaviors and respond with compassion, while remaining calm and structured in the moment.

Texas Christian University, who developed Trust-Based Relational Intervention® provides this definition, “TBRI® is an attachment-based, trauma-informed intervention that is designed to meet the complex needs of vulnerable children. TBRI® uses Empowering Principles to address physical needs, Connecting Principles for attachment needs, and Correcting Principles to disarm fear-based behaviors.”

While everyone could benefit from the content in these training courses, they are especially needed for adults who work with children and youth on a regular basis. This could include schoolteachers, daycare workers, youth pastors, children’s directors, foster and/or adoptive parents, volunteer workers in children’s ministries, and more.

Connie Maxwell will be offering Christ-Centered Trauma Informed trainings and TBRI® trainings led by Tana Dukes, our new Lowcountry Director of Foster Care, and Jules Thompson, Director of Volunteer Engagement. Jules and Tana are both certified TBRI® practitioners and bring a wealth of personal and professional experience to draw from!

MEET THE TRAINERS

Jules Thompson joined Connie Maxwell Children’s Ministries in 2021 as the Director of Volunteer Engagement. A proud two-time graduate of Samford University, originally from Spartanburg, SC, Jules’ upbringing as a biological child in a foster home deeply instilled in her a passion for helping children from challenging backgrounds. Following her parents’ example, she and her husband Kyle became foster parents, eventually adopting their two boys. With a heart for volunteers, Jules enjoys connecting their talents with the mission of Connie Maxwell. As a TBRI® practitioner, she is committed to educating church leaders and members on supporting children and families during difficult times, particularly foster families. Reflecting on her journey, Jules emphasizes, “The biggest thing that I have taken away from my experience with TBRI® and just being generally trauma-informed is that adults have to be regulated if there’s any hope of regulating a child.”

We’re excited to announce Tana Dukes as the newest addition to our team! She will be serving as our Director of Foster Care in the Lowcountry. Tana brings nearly 15 years of child welfare experience. With her background as a Casework Supervisor, she’s equipped to navigate the complexities of fostering healing and stability in the lives of vulnerable children. Tana’s commitment to Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI®) perfectly aligns with Connie Maxwell’s mission, as she spearheads efforts to build church partnerships in the Greater Charleston Area and advocate for Christian foster parents.

Tana's personal vision for fostering healing and stability is deeply rooted in her faith and her extensive experience:

"Connie Maxwell has a long and dynamic history of serving vulnerable children in some of the most challenging times in history. This time is no different—there are children that need to be served in some of the saddest of situations. My hope is that through my new role, we can equip believers, churches, and communities in a collaborative fashion to utilize trauma-informed tools to help children and further generations heal."

COMMITMENT TO LOCAL CHURCHES

Jay Boyd, Senior Vice President for Strategy and Engagement, shares CMCM's desire to be a trusted partner in equipping churches to better care for kids from hard places. "With over 2,100 SCBC churches and more than 6,000 Evangelical churches across South Carolina, we know children who are victims of trauma show up to Sunday school, youth activities, and church events on a regular basis. By making these trainings free and providing them on site to churches across the state, it shows our continued commitment to equipping churches and strengthening communities."

Our training programs will provide ministers and volunteers with ongoing professional development opportunities, ensuring they have access to the latest research and best practices in child welfare. All training will offer people the opportunity to reflect on their own experiences that may impact the way they care for children and families. Trainees will walk away with action items that can be used to better connect and interact with the people they serve. Churches and other community organizations will be able to enhance their support services through the training programs, while laying the foundation for long-term success, where every child can thrive and succeed.

Shannon Mountz, a children's director at Newspring Church was very thankful for the training Jules was able to provide to her team. "The training was exactly what our volunteers needed to reach our kids where they are and give them the skills to be their best self. It showed us ways to really correct, connect, and empower each child. I am truly thankful for the practical tips that our team received. We are able to see an incredible difference in those we reach."

"The training showed us ways to really correct, connect, and empower each child."

- Shannon Mountz, children's director, Newspring Church

Tana Dukes, our new Director for Foster Care in the Lowcountry

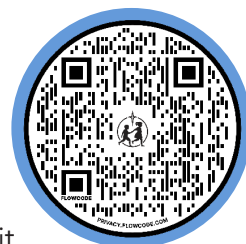

EXPANDING TO THE LOWCOUNTRY

Currently licensing and serving nearly 50 foster families across the Upstate and Midlands, Connie Maxwell recognizes the urgent need for our support in the Lowcountry, where approximately 675 children are in foster care.

Tana Dukes' arrival to Connie Maxwell helps us place more of an emphasis on strengthening church partnerships and raise awareness for the need for foster parents in the Lowcountry.

While a physical location for a Charleston site is in the works, Connie Maxwell has already begun recruiting foster parents and building relationships with churches in the Lowcountry.

ERIN'S STORY

On January 28, Erin Gilfillan graduated from the Family Care Program at Connie Maxwell Children's Ministries (CMCM) and celebrated the culmination of years of hard work, perseverance, and growth.

When Erin first arrived at CMCM on November 9, 2021, she was a single mother facing insurmountable challenges. She had a hard past and two young boys who were no longer in her care.

Erin found a community of support and encouragement when she entered the Family Care Program.

The Family Care Program at Connie Maxwell is more than just a shelter or a temporary solution — it is a comprehensive support system designed to address the unique needs of single parents like Erin. From life skills classes and parenting workshops to financial education and spiritual guidance, Connie Maxwell provided Erin with the tools she needed to succeed in life.

Through individualized goal setting sessions and counseling, Erin learned to confront her past traumas and envision a brighter future for herself and her children. With vocational services and support during the transition to independent living, she gained the confidence and skills necessary to pursue her dreams and build a stable and secure life for her family.

Erin was surrounded by staff members who believed in her and fellow residents who understood her struggles.

She was constantly encountering Jesus through the Family Care staff. At CMCM, the most important aspect of healing is finding hope in Jesus. Erin grew in her faith during her time at CMCM.

She also regained custody of her children and made the Dean's List at Piedmont Technical College, where she was taking classes to be accepted into the radiology program and participated in prayer and study groups. During the program, she volunteered at Self Regional Hospital in the radiology department, as well.

Now, Erin is working full-time and attending school, with her end goal of being accepted into a nursing program. She regularly attends church with her boys.

Diana Johnson, Director of the Family Care Program, enjoyed watching Erin grow in grace. "I truly believe that it takes a village. And Connie Maxwell is just that. We are not just Family Care — we are Family Care at Connie Maxwell."

60 YEARS OF SERVICE

The dedication of Randy and Sandy McManus

Connie Maxwell Children's Ministries (CMCM) recently bid farewell to two remarkable individuals who dedicated their lives to serving children and families in the name of Jesus. Sandy and Randy McManus, with a combined service of 60 years (26 and 34 years, respectively), have left an indelible mark on the ministry and countless lives they have touched along the way. Randy served as the Greenwood Campus Administrator, while Sandy fulfilled her role as the Greenwood Campus Support Coordinator.

Their journey at CMCM has been one of unwavering compassion, love, and commitment to making children's dreams come true. Through their roles, they not only managed the administrative aspects but also fostered an environment of care, nurture, and support for Connie Maxwell children. Their tireless efforts have helped shape the lives of numerous children, providing them with hope and healing.

Randy looks back on his time serving CMCM with gratitude. "Living, working, and serving at Connie Maxwell has been the greatest honor of my life. I will treasure most, the relationships with young people and with incredible staff who have applied their energy, intelligence, and spiritual gifts to make a difference in the lives of these young people."

In recognition of their outstanding service, CMCM honored Sandy and Randy by dedicating the McManus Walk on November 2. This walkway, traversing through the heart of the campus, stands as a testament to their commitment to the safety and well-being of Connie Maxwell children. It symbolizes their legacy of protection, ensuring that every child who walks through the campus feels secure and valued.

On November 6, Sandy McManus received the 2023 "Will You Come to Me in My Dreams" Endowment Award for decades of faithful service to the Lord and Connie Maxwell children. The award is peer nominated and is an endowment fund established by President Danny Nicholson and his wife, Debra, to honor the moment when God called them to CMCM and to honor and remember their parents.

This accolade underscores Sandy's profound impact and the deep impression she has left on her colleagues and the entire CMCM community. Her dedication, kindness, and unwavering devotion to the children she served have truly made her an exemplar of compassion and service.

Sandy reflects on her time at CMCM. "My favorite places to be were in Connie Maxwell Baptist Church and in the woods at the ropes course. The church, with its high ceiling and beautiful windows, conveys a strong sense of love from those who provided the funds to build it, to the enduring presence of the children and staff who have learned, sung, and prayed within those walls. The woods, with its trails and trees give a peaceful, protected environment for wildlife and people to also learn, sing, and pray in another tall, beautiful, and spiritual place."

President Danny Nicholson remarks on the impact of Randy and Sandy McManus. "They are the essence of what Connie Maxwell is all about. For so long, they were a staple in our culture and created an example of sacrifice and compassion beyond the call of duty. We will miss them, but their impact will linger in our hearts and minds forever!"

Sandy and Randy's influence will continue to resonate within the ministry and the hearts of those they have touched for years to come. Their passion for the mission of transforming children's lives will continue to inspire and guide all those who follow in their footsteps. They have faithfully served to make the dreams of Connie Maxwell children possible.
